Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Underwood
831 So. Hardin Drive
Chattanooga, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

The thought of coming to Green's Lake Road for a meeting was made even more pleasant as I remembered my acquaintance with you and your daughter. You have done a very excellent job in giving her the kind of faith and outlook on life which she needs as an adult.

The opportunity to eat with you and to visit in your home was an enjoyable one. I am expecially happy that you have taken such an interest in the Ewtons. I know that Sister Ewton needs and will continue to need a great deal of encouragement.

You did so much to make my stay in Chattanooga a very pleasant one. I send you my very best wishes and gratitude.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
